

Congratulations to Emma Kate Monroe (6th grade) for placing FIRST in STATE in the Daughters of the American Revolution essay contest. St. John's had several students competing at varying levels of the contest, and we are so proud of all of them. Emma Kate has been invited to accept her award (check and certificate) at a special DAR awards luncheon in Raleigh. There will also be awards events at the district and chapter levels, too. Congrats, Emma Kate.

Grandparents' Breakfast Donations Needed

St. John's Annual Grandparents' Breakfast for PreK-8th grade will be held Friday, March 9th at 8:15 in the school cafeteria. This is an exciting morning for students and their guests. We hope every child has made plans to have a grandparent, uncle, aunt, cousin or other special friend to join them that morning. There will be an opportunity during the breakfast for each student and guest to have a photo made together. Guests are also encouraged to stay for the 9:00 Chapel Service followed by the annual Bible Bee.

All families are asked to help make our Grandparents' Breakfast a special event by providing the following items. Please bring items Wednesday, March 7th or Thursday, March 8th to the school cafeteria/kitchen. Someone will be there to collect the items or look for marked bins. Questions can be sent to Dana Jafroodi via FastDirect. PTO thanks you for your support.
