

Preschool & Pre-K Readiness

The Building Blocks of Education Come Together Here

St. John's Lutheran Preschool is a Christian organization serving the Triad area. An optimal learning environment awaits your child every day. Classrooms are purposeful, safe and well-managed, and the staff is highly experienced in teaching young children to build upon their God-given potential.

Preschool & Pre-K Readiness

Highlights of the SJLS Program

St. John's Lutheran School has a well-known reputable Preschool and Pre-K Readiness program providing a smooth transition into Kindergarten. St. John's Preschool and Pre-K Readiness program features:

- The Creative Curriculum balances both teacher-directed and child-initiated learning, with an emphasis on responding to children's learning styles and building on their strengths and interests (designed for ages 3-5)
- The North Carolina Foundations for Early Learning and Development focuses on five domains: Approaches to Play and Learning, Emotional and Social Development, Health and Physical Development, Language Development and Communication, and Cognitive Development.

Strengths of Program/school:

- Sonia Davidson – SJLS mainpreschool teacher over 20 years
- Small class sizes
- Weekly Chapel Computer, PE, Music, Library and Art
- Extras: music and special projects, two musicals
- After school care program available for additional cost

What Children Really Need to Get From Preschool

St. John's preschool teachers' goals are to help students reach their full potential by providing an environment and experience that promotes growth and learning beyond their preschool years. Kindergarten Readiness is important to us but so is a firm foundation in Christian based knowledge.
